SUBJECT	CAMOG/DTDORIE/QKACTIVE/Operational Information re "Overseas News Service"
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
Ref. EGMA-56929, dated 28 November 1961 1. We understand the Subject organization has a semi-official status in the Chinese Nationalist Government where it is associated with the Ministry of Overseas Affairs. Its headquarters are in Taipei, Taiwan. A large percentage of its correspondents are not professional newspaper people and are not certified by the Chinese Embassy. The address of 234 Mott St., Room 11, New York 12, N.Y., is correct. 2. Robert Gang WU <input type="checkbox"/> was born 26 December 1927 in Shanghai, China. He entered the United States at San Francisco, Calif., on 6 November 1954 as a non-immigrant student. He married a Chinese girl who is an American citizen and was granted permanent residence on 21 October 1958. 3. Since his arrival in the U.S., Mr. WU has combined study and work, residing always in New York City except for a few months at the University of Texas in 1955. He has worked much of the time as an accountant. The starting date of his association with the Overseas News Service was about 12 April 1959 and he terminated this connection sometime prior to 14 September 1961. He is not certified as a newspaperman by the Chinese Embassy, Washington, D.C. 4. Due to some of his activities as chairman of the Chinese Students Association and the somewhat incoherent nature of some of his letters to government organizations we would recommend against any contact with Mr. WU.
